Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund—Student Portion

1. Davis College has signed and returned to the Department of Education the Certification and Agreement and the assurance and intends to use, no less than 50 percent of the funds received under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES & CRRSAA, and 18004(a)(4) of the ARP Act to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students.
2. The College has received $135,672 from 18004(a)(1) (HEERF I CARES Act funds=$67,836 and HEERF II CRRSAA funds=$67,836); and $206,791 from 18004(a)(4) from the Department according to the institution’s Certification and Agreement [for] Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students.
3. Davis College disbursed the Emergency Financial Aid Grants of $147,445 to 94 students under section 18004(a)(1) and 18004(a)(4) of HEERF as of March 31, 2022. Also, the college granted Emergency Financial Aid Grants of $138,500 to 92 students from its institutional portion of FIPSE funds in this following manner s of September 15, 2021:

Methodology
Oncampus/Teaching Site
Level 1	Level 1: 12 crs and above	$3,000.00
Level 2	Level 2: 9-11 crs	$1,500.00
Level 3	Level 3: 7 crs and below	$500.00
Online-Only
Level 1	Level 1: 21 crs and above	$1,500.00
Level 2	Level 2: 12 crs and above	$1,000.00
Level 3	Level 3: 9-11 crs	$500.00

4. The College estimates that Ninety Four students could potentially participate in programs under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 and thus become eligible to receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students under Section 18004(a)(1) & (a)(4) of the HEERF.
5. The institution has prioritized students with low to middle family incomes to receive additional CARES funds to support students who have higher COVID-19 expenses than the standard relief grant amount. A general grant of $1000-$2000 will be awarded to each fulltime student and one of $100-$1000 to each parttime student based on the family income reported on the FAFSA.

6. These funds are meant to help students pay expenses for technology, health care, childcare, course materials, rent, food, moving, or other expenses incurred this semester. If a student has yet to experience financial stress due to COVID-19, these funds can help with unanticipated expenses or income loss that may occur throughout the semester and into future semesters. Students are not required to provide the College with any information on how the grant was used.
